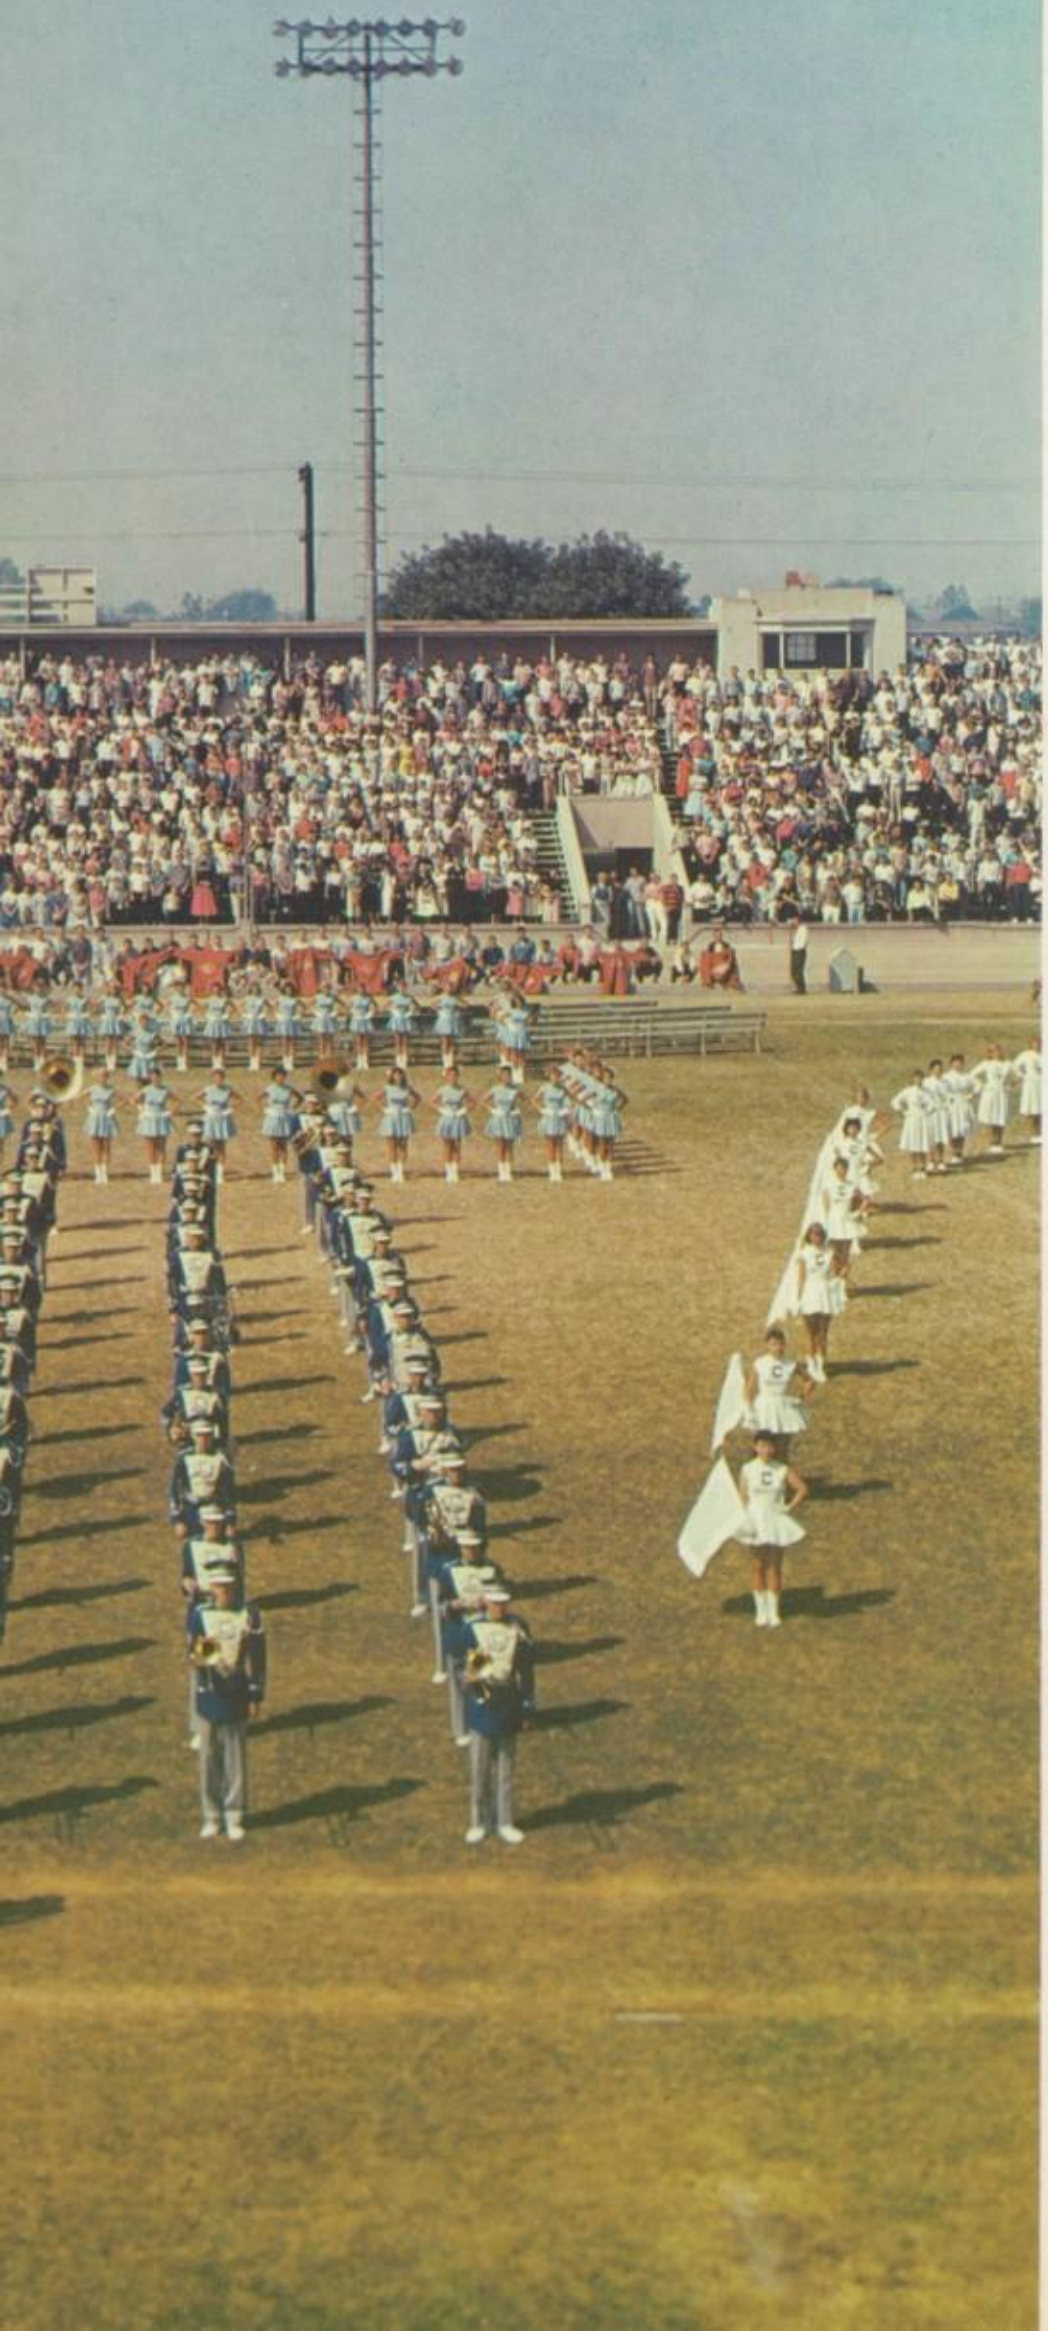
THE

YEAR



FOREWORD

To all who may be interested in the activities and development of Compton Senior High School, we offer the 1957 El Companile.

For the theme we have selected "Our Campus Activities Through the Year," in the hope we may picture the growth, the highlights, the memories, and the beauty of our school. By using running heads, picturing our dances, games, assemblies, classroom activities, and sports, we have tried to pinpoint the highlights of our year.

For the first time we have pictured our underclassmen, and have a 9" by 12" hard back cover. Another first is our four color runs.

Nothing more remains, but to present it to you.

Our one hope is that you may be pleased.

SOPHOMORE

This year at Compton, a new precedent was started among the Sophomore class. For the first time, they were represented at all "B" football games by their own yell leaders.

It is hoped by Miss Wyatt and Mr. Dilworth, class sponsors, that this idea will become a permanent procedure among future classes. The yell leaders for this year are: Gilberg Freitag, Al Peppin, Barry Reese, Tim Baryton, and Richard Whiteside.

Sopha Ci members of last year got together with this year's members at a party which was held in the cafeteria early in the second quarter. In the center. Glorie Vavruska appears to be holding some undistinguished object. In the far right, Jean Valkie is staring aimlessly off into space. Other activities of the Sopha Chi include sponsoring the Red Cross Drive, and ushering for sophomore activities throughout the year.

CLASSES

The Sophomore class activities are sprinkled throughout the year by numerous "coke hops," which take place after school in the cafeteria. Above, such an affair has just gotten under way, as three unidentified couples are shown gliding across the dance floor. At these "hops," there was always fun, music, gaiety and cokes for the many students who took advantage of them by attending.

If you look closely, you will be able to see Miss Knox, sponsor of the organization, along with Grace Woo, Sue Gamble, Jean Valkie and Linda Lee. VARSITY CROSS COUNTRY

Varsity cross country and Coast League champions are: Row I, Jim Nauenberg, David Sininger, Don Rossier, George Williamson. Row II, Coach Ernie Hartmann, Art Paz, Don Kline, Dennis Hamby, Ernie Garcia, Kenny Weiss and Woody Covington.

"The Four Horsemen" are just four good reasons why Coach Hartmann is expecting another Coast League title next year . . . . possibly a CIF championship to go with it. These top varsity runners are all juniors, and their presence next year will certainly be a thorn in the side of any opposing team. They are Woody Covington, Ernie Garcia, Kenny Weiss and Art Paz.

Under the watchful eye of Coach Hartmann, Cross country at Compton has become the envy of all other schools in Southern California. From 1944-54, and again in 1956, Mr. Hartmann has coached his teams to a Coast League championship, and has won more than his share of CIF titles.

JUNIOR VARSITY

Members of the junior varsity cross country team are: Row I, T. Clow, J. Woods, J. Weisenbeck, B. Falks, D. Mays, V. Barra, J. Megorhon. Row II, Coach Hartmann, P. Reeves, J. Cogstead, J. Ramos, R. McMillan, W. Knowles, M. Liera, D. Bryan, H. Thorn, M. McCrea, D. Davies, J. Garcia.

VARSITY WATER POLO

Mike McDonald, All-Coast League and Co-Captain of the varsity squad, was one of the best sprinters in League play.

SCHEDULE

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE SEASON

Compton high's Varsity Water Polo team had one of the most successful years in its history. The season started with a smashing 26-2 victory over Lynwood. From there Compton went on to win an upset thriller from Long Beach Wilson by a score of 10-8. Other wins included a 12-10 upset of Anaheim in the last five seconds, and an 8-7 victory over Long Beach Jordan. Water polo is truly one of the greatest of sports. There is never a dull moment.

Here, the varsity squad is shown in a hectic scrimmage fighting for possession of the ball. This is a good example of why water polo is such a fascinatin sport.

BEE TEAM

"I was quite pleased with the way the boys played up to the level of their ability. My thanks to a fighting bunch of boys with good spirit."

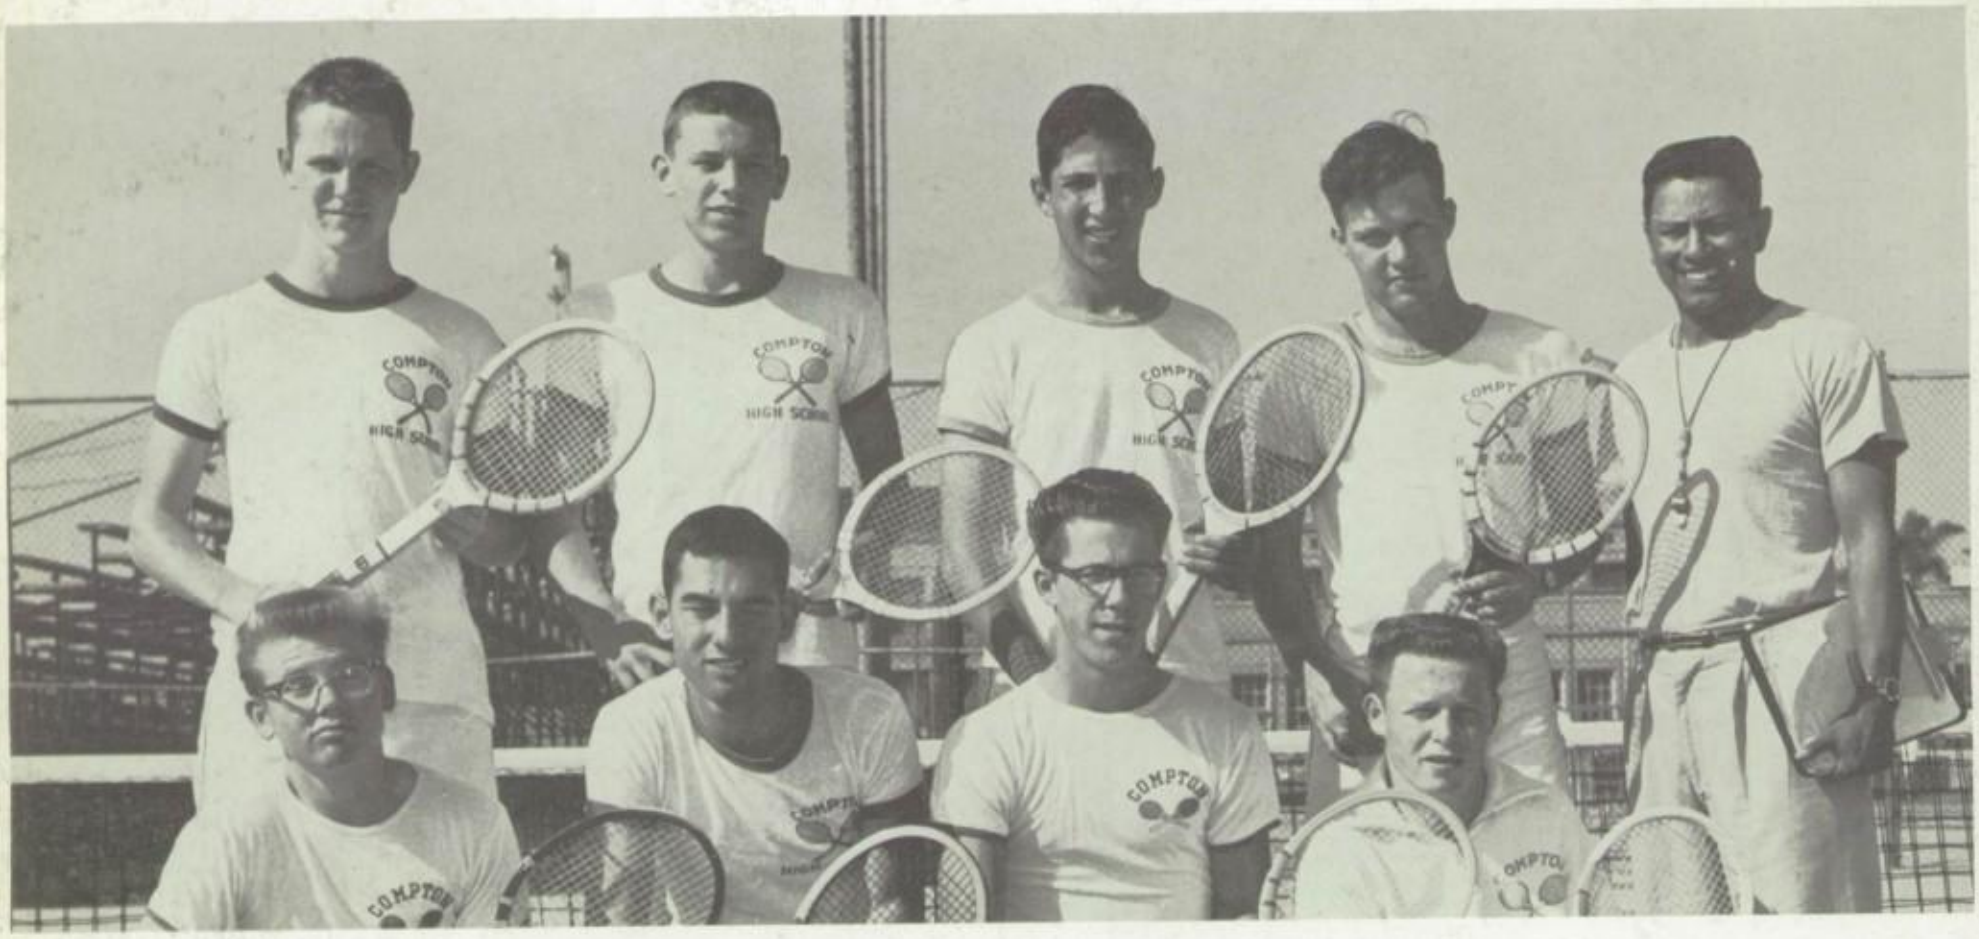
Mike MacDonald, center forward was the only boy to make All Coast from Compton.

Mike Williams is a junior of whom great things are expected next year. He has a fine throwing arm.

Bob Macy alternated at guard and forward and has made great improvements on his previous years.

VARSITY TENNIS



Tennis has just started, but at this writing the team is showing more grit and determination to work than any team in the past four years. The fact that only three lettermen, Steve Cogswell, Dave Hubbard, and Joel Yellin have returned from last year has been a great handicap so far. However, a tough practice schedule has sharpened the team, and it may finish quite high in the league. Varsity Tennis members are: Row I, Wiliam Peeler, Joel Yellin, Bob Stannard, Dave Adamoli. Row II, Steve Cogswell, Dave Hubbard, Jerry Ramos, Bob McMillan, Coach Paddy Caudillo.

SWAN SONG

Now it is time to set aside all planning and work, and start to dream. After many days of anticipation we are glad to give you a jam packed book of memories. We have pictured every phase of school life at Compton high; we have at some place in this book a picture of every student; and we have told the story of Our Year in Activities.

The only thing left for me to do as editor of the El Companile is to express my sincere appreciation for those who helped me so efficiently in the editing of my book.

Without the steady hand, understanding and guidance from Mrs. Viola Bagwell the yearbook would have been more difficult. The staff and I extend our sincere thanks to her.

To Dorothy Stratford Banks, my unmatchable associate editor who day after day, night after night put in long hours of tiring labor into the book, I wish to give my first vote of thanks. Gary Hanns, ablest of business managers; Dennis Houston, Claudia Long, Kyle Brown, Joann Lefferts, Art Fristad, Maggie Davis, Ernie Crosby, and Kenny Weiss, division editors, all helped to make the project a better one. For this they sought nothing in return but the satisfaction of a job well done.

And to the Journalistic Art Staff: Gary Thornton, Nancy Boucher, Carol Sexton, Paul Boley, Willa Mae Craig, Dick Judd, Barbara Martin, Brittain Wilde, Norma Willard, and its adviser Mrs. Delight Hoffmann, go our many thanks for the cover and the divisions sheets.

To the staff of the Yearbook House in Monrovia, Calif., our publisher; and Mr. Bob Weygand from the Chris Myron Studios, our photographer, go our thanks.

To all of these friends, THANKS so very much for all your friendship, your cooperation, and your labors.

So long for now——

Linda Lorenzen

Editor-In-Chief

After all these days of activities, we are tired,
At last the time comes to rest.
But amidst the busy, struggling world
We will have memories.

I'LL BE SEEING YOU
